

Holy Cross CWL observes 50th anniversary

Excitement and anticipation abound at Holy Cross parish as the Catholic Women's League (CWL) prepares for its 50th Jubilee this fall.

To mark this important occasion, the Most Reverend A.F. Tonnos, Bishop of Hamilton Diocese, will celebrate mass on Saturday, Nov. 16, followed by a banquet in the church hall.

The CWL at Holy Cross was organized and received its charter in 1952 with 15 members. Since then membership has grown to 174. Beth Yates was the first president and she, Margaret Wilcox and Teresa Lawr are the only surviving charter members.

It is anticipated that many past-presidents from as far away as Florida and South Carolina will attend the anniversary celebration.

The CWL's mandate includes fund-raising for parish and community projects and for foreign relief. The major fund-raiser is an annual bazaar held in October. In years past, the bazaar was held in the Rose Room above the Memorial Arena on Mill St. When Holy Cross Church was built in 1965, this event was

The CWL is a national organization with more than 104,000 members. The national executive, based in Winnipeg, meets annually with federal ministers to suggest policies that members have formulated. The CWL was the first to urge a ban on the manufacture and sale of land mines as well as mounting a campaign against child pornography among many other endeavours.

Pretty Wedding in Georgetown United Church Saturday

Georgetown United Church was the scene of a quiet wedding on Saturday, November 14th when Stella, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lane of Georgetown became the bride of Edward "Ted" Scarlett R.C.A.F., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Scarlett of Brampton.

Rev. R. C. Todd officiated and Miss Helen Blackburn presided at the organ. During the signing of the register Miss Joan Hale sang "Because".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a wedding gown of white sheer crepe, with shoulder-length halo veil caught in place with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Briarcliff roses. Miss Ethel Lane was her sister's attendant. She wore a gown of blue velvet and net with matching floral headdress and her bouquet was of American beauty roses. The groomsmen were Harold Schenk, R.C.A.F., of Glen Williams. The reception followed at the home of the bride's parents where Mrs. Lane, mother of the bride received the guests, wearing blue crepe with black accessories and a corsage of white baby mums.

Following the reception, the bride and groom left for a short motor trip to Northern Ontario, the bride travelling in a blue wool suit with black accessories. Upon their return the bride will make her home in Georgetown and the groom will return to his R.C.A.F. station.

ALWAYS WANTED A PET?

Rabbit Rescue is a non-profit organization that helps unwanted, abandoned or neglected rabbits find owners who love and appreciate them. You can adopt a bunny or foster one. We will teach you all you need to know about bunnies to help you determine if a rabbit is right for you. Rabbits are wonderful house pets and make loving companions. Rabbits can be litter-trained and many have the run of the house. They are affectionate and sometimes downright hilarious! Call now and find out if you are 'right for a rabbit'. We are also looking for caring people to love our foster bunnies while they are waiting to be adopted. Alternately, you can sponsor a bunny - log on to our website to see bunnies available right now for adoption, fostering or sponsoring.
