Police blotter

Thieves target Hasty Market for third time

For the third time in the last several weeks the Hasty Market on Main St. N. was broken into. Halton Police report the most recent break-in occurred sometime late Wednesday or early Thursday. The front door was pried open to gain entry. The ATM inside the store was cut open and a large quantity of cash was stolen. Also taken was a large quantity of cigarettes.

Police report a 1992 Dodge Caravan, valued at $7,000, was stolen from a Mary St. residence late Wednesday or Thursday. The van, which received minor damage, was later recovered.

A Brampton woman is charged with being intoxicated in a public place after police pulled over a vehicle for a routine stop on Edward and Guelph St. early last Wednesday. Police say a female passenger in the vehicle got out while the vehicle was stopped and began walking on the road. Police arrested her for her own safety.

Charged is Julie Bergsma, 20, of Clark Blvd.
