BLACK & DECKER
Grand Prize WORKSHOP

WINNER

Maureen Fariello is the proud owner of a Black & Decker workshop valued at more than $1,000 after winning a Metroland Printing, Publishing and Distributing Ltd. contest that drew over 15,000 entries. The contest was advertised in the recent "There's No Place Like Home" publication that was distributed in Metroland newspapers, including The Independent & Free Press. On hand to present Fariello, centre, with her prizes, which included a RD1440K limited edition anniversary drill, were Independent & Free Press publisher Ken Nugent (left) and Black & Decker director of marketing Brett Maves. Fariello filled out the winning ballot after reading The Georgetown Independent & Free Press.
