Region has range of activities planned for emergency week

Halton Region is getting ready for the annual Emergency Preparedness Week from May 4-10. This year's theme is Prepare Now! Learn How! The event is designed to build public awareness about the importance of planning for any emergency situation. Halton Region, in co-operation with other local partners, agencies and industries, will participate in a range of activities throughout the week highlighted Tuesday, May 6 by a mock emergency exercise from 8:30 a.m. to noon at Halton Regional Centre, 1151 Bronte Rd. in Oakville. Last year, Halton released the Personal Emergency Preparedness Guide, a comprehensive reference tool that encourages and assists residents in planning for various types of emergencies. For a copy of the guide or more information on emergency preparedness, call Halton Region at (905) 825-6000 or 1-866-442-5866. You can also view the guide on-line at www.region.halton.on.ca and it's available in Halton's Citizen Reference Library in the regional building.
