Monday night at Robert Little School

Canadian singer Valdy stars in fund-raiser

Families are invited to come out for an evening of fun to see renowned Canadian folk artist and children's entertainer Valdy at Robert Little School on Monday, May 12 at 7 p.m.

A part of the Canadian pop and folk music scene for more than 30 years, Valdy will include a variety of original works for both adults and children. Songs will include his hits Peter and Lou, Play Me a Rock 'n' Roll Song, Sonny's Dream, Chocolate Goodnight and children's songs such as Get A Hair Cut Dad.

Proceeds from the evening, presented by Johnson Associates Halton Ltd. sales representation David Burland, will go to Robert Little School's music school program.

Tickets for adults are $10 and $5 for children 10 and under; seating is limited.

Tickets are available at Robert Little School, 519-853-2540, A Novel Escape, 905-702-1851 or by calling David Burland, 519-853-3269 or 905-877-5165.

Valdy has issued 14 albums, 22 singles and garnered four gold records. He has won two Juno awards (Folk Singer of the Year and Folk Entertainer of the Year) and received 7 Juno nominations for Best Country Male Vocalist and Folksinger.

The British Columbia resident has also won Songwriter of the Year and CARAS awards in Folk/Bluegrass categories.

Valdy continues to tour across North America as well as Europe and Australia. His latest CD, Contender, is collaboration with singer/songwriter Gary Fjellgaard. He also about to release Viva Valdy, a two-CD "one live, one studio" set. For more information visit his Web site, www.valdy.com

Georgetown exports talent

The talents of two Georgetown residents were showcased at Brampton Music Theatre's spring cabaret, Magic Carpet Ride, held last weekend.

Al Gilmer sung a solo from Jesus Christ Superstar while Karen Chorney served as choreographer. The cabaret, with music direction by Michael Domet, was a musical review through two of the wildest decades, the 60s and 70s.
