New York bound

Local artist Sheri Tenaglia-Grandin has been busy lately in preparation of her upcoming solo art exhibition and sale at the Jacklyn King Gallery in Montclair, New York, which opens May 10. The show, Sunlight and Shadow, features 27 of the Georgetown artist's landscapes, and runs until mid-June. Tenaglia works with pastels, and has a unique style, using her fingers instead of a brush, creating very bold and vibrant images. Her main inspiration is the Tobermory area, and she has been a professional artist for 18 years.
