Bulldogs suffer lost weekend in falling to Hawks, Pacers

The Halton Hills Bulldogs stumbled for the first time this season, dropping back-to-back games over the weekend.

One night after losing 10-9 to the Huntsville Hawks on a last-minute goal, Halton Hills suffered another defeat at home, 11-6 at the hands of the Sarnia Pacers.

The Bulldogs rallied from an early 4-0 deficit Saturday to take an 8-7 lead in the third period on Richard Haan's fourth goal of the game. The Hawks regained the lead with goals 21 seconds apart midway through the third but within a minute B.J. Brown tied the game 9-9 on B.J. Brown's second of the night.

It would remain that way until the final minute while Huntsville's Jeff Gignac scored with 10 seconds to play. The Bulldogs didn't go quietly though. They forced a turnover to set up a last-second shot, which Haan rang off the post.

Travis Bland had a goal and two assists and Mike Dube and Matt Walinga also scored for the Bulldogs. Matt Lyons had three assists.

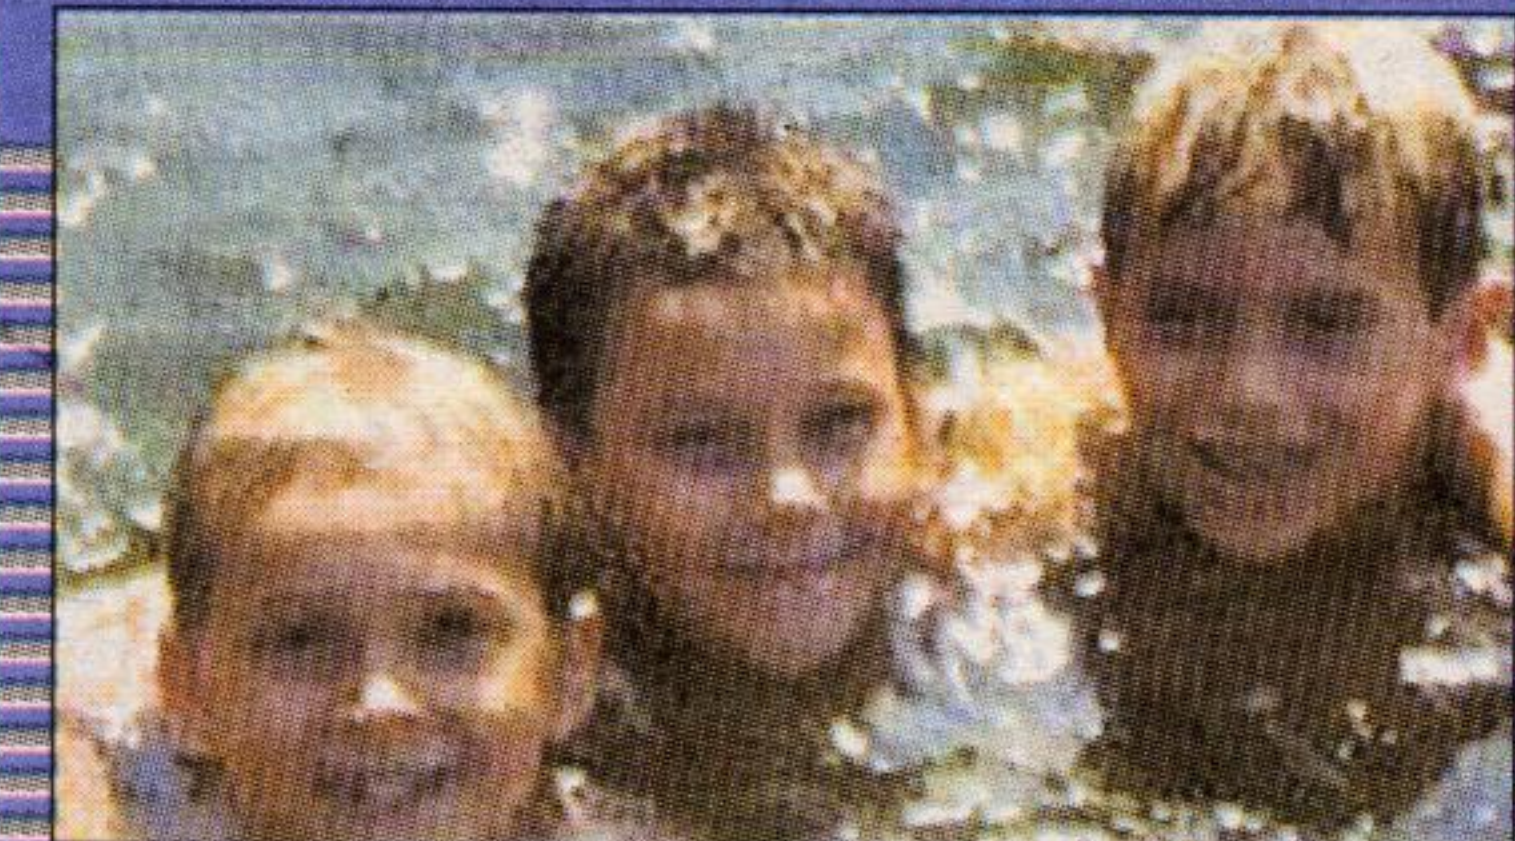

Less than 24 hours later, a third-period scoring drought cost the Bulldogs. Halton Hills trailed 7-6 heading into the third but surrendered four unanswered goals. Bland, Haan and Jordan Armstrong each had a goal and two assists for the 'Dogs. Lyons, Tyler Phillips and Brown had the other goals.

DOG BITES: The Bulldogs play back-to-back road games on the weekend, Saturday in Akwesasne and Sunday in Gloucester. Their next home game is Thursday, May 22 against Mimico, who now share first place in the South East Division with Halton Hills...Haan entered the weekend trailing only Spartan's Andrew Burkholder in the league scoring race.
