

Donation to the library

Geoff Cannon, Halton Hills Library Manager of Information Services recently accepted a $1,400 donation from Halton/North Peel Naturalist Club, Canoe Country and the TD Canada Trust Friends of the Environment Fund, which included a number of books and reference material relating to nature, for both the Acton and Georgetown branches. On hand for the presentation were (from left) Cannon, Mike Davis, Teresa Rigg and Nancy Kovacs (all of the Halton/North Peel Naturalist Club) and Monique Bartolomeo of the TD Canada Trust Friends of the Environment.

Closed on Saturday

Both branches of the Halton Hills Public Library will be closed on Saturday, May 17 for the Victoria Day holiday. The library will re-open on Tuesday, May 20 at 9:30 a.m.

Giant book sale

Halton Hills Public Library is preparing for its annual giant book sale, sponsored by the Friends of the Halton Hills Public Library.

Thousands of items will be for sale, including hardcover and paperback books for all ages, magazines, cassettes and videos. Stock up on summer cottage reading. Most items have bargain prices of a $1 or less!

LIBRARY NEWS

The sale will be held on Saturday, June 7, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Acton branch or on Saturday, June 14, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Georgetown branch.

Volunteers are needed to assist with sorting and setting up for the sale. If interested in helping out, call David Dodgson, 519-853-8855.

For more information, contact the Acton branch at 519-853-0301 or the Georgetown branch at 905-873-2681.
