Georgetown Seniors

Cookbook needs more titles

The "Name our Cookbook" contest closes on May 30 and we're still looking for more titles.

The winner will receive a free dinner at the Shepherd's Crook in downtown Georgetown. Jot down your inspired thought and drop it in the box at the seniors' centre. You may be the winner.

The spring luncheon on Tuesday, May 13 was attended by approximately 100 and was well received. Our thanks to the ladies who provided and served the food. Following lunch we were entertained by our choir, under the direction of Irene Kerby.

Also on May 13 we were pleased to have Victoria Malmstrom from the CNIB speak about the needs of the blind. She displayed various items available to those with impaired sight, for example a plastic carving knife, playing cards with large spots and marked in braille, and a talking bedside clock. These are just some of the items available from CNIB in Mississauga by calling 1-888-275-5332.

There will be another evening of bid euchre at the centre next Tuesday, May 27 at 7 p.m. All are welcome.

Talent will be on display at an art show and sale by members at the Seniors Centre at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre from May 19 to June 2. Come out and see their work.

On Thursday, June 5 from 7 to 9 p.m. our drama club will present their Annual Variety Night at the centre. Come out and enjoy an evening of local senior talent. Refreshments are available.

On Wednesday, June 11 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. we present "Café Memoirs" by the memoir writing group. This is a really interesting evening and you are encouraged to attend. All are welcome.

Have you ever thought of lawn bowling? If you have, then the club is looking for you. Call Maddie Howat at 905-877-3947, or Eric Thompson at 905-877-9866 for more information.

Until next time— cheerio!

Seniors' art

Georgetown Seniors' Centre member Wendy Mount adjusts one of her prints at the opening of their first annual seniors art exhibition and sale at The Gallery of Halton Hills Cultural Centre Wednesday night. The show features 50 pieces, all the work of members of the seniors' centre, and runs until May 31.

Acton Seniors

Fund-raising teams have been busy

In the months of April and May the fund-raising team at the centre have put on three events, namely the Spring Fling Bazaar, the Community Brunch and the Yard Sale.

Our success is mainly due to the support of the Acton community, who not only came to buy our goods but also donated some great items, which helped fill our coffers. Our thanks are due to all concerned.

Don't forget the Antiques Roadshow scheduled for Tuesday, May 27 between 3 and 8 p.m. There is an appraisal charge of $2 per item with a limit of three items.

Are you fascinated by history and genealogy? If so, we have an interesting day coming up on June 9 at 2 p.m. at the centre. Geoff Cannon and Lonnie Walks will make themselves available to assist you in finding some of your ancestors and prior owners of some local properties. If you own a computer, they can help you discover the Internet. See you there.
