

Georgetown library branch closed Sept. 9 for renovations

The Georgetown branch of the Halton Hills Library will be closed on Tuesday, Sept. 9 for renovations.

The adult fiction area in the Georgetown branch is getting a facelift. Gone are the old wooden fiction shelves, which were put out to auction in August. In their place is adjustable shelving with more display area. The new shelving will provide more space for all adult fiction books, large print books, paperbacks and adult videos.

The library is also looking at every book in the adult non-fiction collection. Books, whose information is out of date, damaged or haven't been used in a long time will be sold at the branch's annual book sale. The additional space will allow the library to add new books and display some of the more interesting titles.

The Acton branch will operate normal hours on Sept. 9.

The Georgetown branch will re-open on Wednesday, Sept. 10 at 9:30 a.m.

Come in and see the new adult fiction area.

Supporters thanked for aiding tourney

Thank you to all those who made generous donations to our annual golf tournament August 24. Without your support the day would not have been a success.

There will be no breakfast in September but mark October 11 on your calendar for our next hungry man breakfast.

Don't forget the general meeting for our branch is now beginning for the fall, winter and spring. Pay your dues—we need earlybirds.

And don't forget our new elevator is in service.

Send your clunker to Car Heaven

If you're sick of paying money to fix your old clunker, it is time to send it to Car Heaven.

By sending your car to Car Heaven, a non-profit program, the car is recycled and the proceeds from its parts support charities such as Epilepsy Ontario. Car owners who donate their car can get a free tow up to $200, a minimum charitable receipt for $60 and a chance to win a Ford Focus.

If you think your car is a candidate for Car Heaven, you can access the donor form through the Epilepsy Ontario Web site at <http://epilepsyontario.org> or call 1-800-463-1119 or contact Car Heaven directly at 1-888-731-7311 or on-line at www.carheaven.ca
