Juried show accepts InnerScapes

Preparing for own show, Sept. 27-28

The local art group, known as InnerScapes, has been accepted en masse to the juried art show, War and Peace, presented by The Headwaters Art Festival.

This year's theme is a particular challenge for artists, who were asked to submit pieces with a war/peace interpretation. The pieces were to evoke strong feelings, statements or images with relation to fostering world peace and or the impacts of war. Making a statement while keeping an optimistic outlook in a piece of fine art was the mission.

InnerScapes artists worked collaboratively generating ideas and sometimes working together to provide creative energy and constructive critique. All group members (Bea Dumbreck, Herta Hajek, Tizi Manierka, George Perdue, Eileen Simpson, and Jan Zimmerman) were accepted into the show.

The exhibition runs from October 3-12 with an opening Gala on Friday, Oct. 3 at the SGI Caledon Centre in Alton. For tickets call The Headwaters Art Festival at 1-877-262-0545.

The InnerScapes' next group show, Local Colour, is at their gallery on the weekend of September 27 and 28. Call 905-873-2178 for details.

Also on the fall agenda: Dumbreck is painting a large mural at the Downtown Spa. Hajek is exhibiting at Springbanks Sept. 19-21. Manierka will be showing at the Williams Mill Oct. 4-5 in the Dinner Party show. Perdue is participating in the Erin Hills Studio Tour on the weekend of Sept. 26-27 appearing at the Paper Daisy Studio on Ninth Line in Erin. Simpson is showing in the Headwaters tour on Sept. 26-27 with the Orangeville Art Group at Monora Park in Orangeville and Zimmerman is in the Re:Vision show at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre in October.

The mandate of InnerScapes, together for two years, is to help each other grow artistically. They often work to a theme or a collective interpretation. This encourages experimentation that cultivates artistic growth, say members.
