All-candidates meetings lined up

The Georgetown University Women's Club hosts a provincial all-candidates meeting tomorrow (Thursday), 7:30 p.m. in the John Elliott Theatre.

The event will feature speeches from each of the five Halton riding candidates, followed by questions from the audience. Topics will include health care, education, environment, agriculture and economic development.

The University Women's Club is a non-partisan group dedicated to education and involvement in public affairs.

Other all-candidates meetings have been scheduled on Sept. 23, a joint breakfast meeting of the Halton Hills and Milton Chambers of Commerce at Granite Ridge Golf Course, and later that evening at the Milton Leisure Centre, hosted by the Milton Jaycees. Cogeco TV will also host a live meeting at their studio on Sept. 25.

Having a 'Hoot'

At the third annual Halton Hills Branch of the Spinal Cord Association golf tournament, local organizer Wayne MacDonald was joined by Jennifer Rooney and Marie Lilly, both 'Hooters Girls' from Brampton, as they joked around at Eagle Ridge Golf Course Friday afternoon. The tournament raised approximately $26,000 for the Spinal Cord Association.
