Grant is music to cadets' ears

Cpl. Scott Russell (left) and Sgt. Andrew Northmore of the 756 Squadron (Georgetown) of the Royal Canadian Air Cadets checked out the new shipment of musical instruments delivered to the squadron after recently receiving a $10,000 Trillium Foundation grant. With the new instruments, the squadron is welcoming new members to add to the band's numbers. Georgetown air cadets meet Monday nights at the Armoury on Todd Road.

It's Carnivale time this weekend

For the fourth year in a row Georgetown Alliance Church is hosting Carnivale—a weekend-long party for the entire community set for this weekend (Friday through Sunday).

"Carnivale is a great opportunity for us to demonstrate our love for the people of Georgetown and the surrounding communities," said Patrick Timney, Georgetown Alliance Church Pastor of Worship, Outreach and Seniors. "We want people to come out, make some new friends, and have a great time."

Back again for Carnivale this year will be renowned chalk artist Ben Glenn, aka "The Chalk Guy".

"He brings his art to life with multi-media and music in a presentation that captivates both young and old alike," said Timney.

A luncheon for seniors will be held at Carnivale from noon until 2:30 p.m. Friday. They will also be able to check out Glenn.

At 7 p.m. the teens take over and that event will include some big, blow-up toys, food and an appearance by Glenn.

There will be rides, games, popcorn, hot dogs, candy floss and an appearance by Glenn for the whole family, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday. A Texas barbecue and line dancing for adults will be held 6-10 p.m. Everyone is welcome back to the church on Sunday for the 9 a.m. or 11 a.m. services.

Admission is free. Carnivale will be held at the church at 290 Main St. S. For more information call 905-873-0249.

Where Child Abuse Hurts Most

Sometimes the worst scars of child abuse can't be seen. Whether physical or emotional, abuse attacks a child's self-esteem and emotional development, leaving long-term emotional trauma and pain. You can help prevent child abuse by being a nurturing parent or caregiver. By letting children know they are special, competent and loved, you can help them develop positive self-images and happier futures. If you feel overwhelmed, angry or frustrated as a parent, help is out there for you. Look in your area for support groups and services, or talk to a trusted friend, family member, pastor or doctor about what you can do to protect and support your child. If we all do our part to prevent child abuse, we'll get to the heart of the matter.
