Residents in the Third Line and 10 Sideroad area found their road closed Friday as a group of Toronto-based film makers worked on a director's reel, a promotional film for director Manuel Garcia Neves to show prospective clients. The film features unique camera angles created by mounting the camera on a motorcycle. Cameraman James A. Griffith (right) made adjustments as Neves prepared to take his Ducati for a ride. Local singer hosts CD release party

Georgetown artist Neil Cotton has recorded seven original songs on his new eight-song CD, Neil Cotton and Friends.

The CD release party is on October 4, at the McGibbon Hotel in downtown Georgetown.

This is country-rock. The influences of Johnny Cash, Elvis Presley, Jimmy Buffett, Ronnie Hawkins and Alan Jackson can be heard on this CD.

The "Friends" include son Sean Cotton, John Cox, Gary Creary, Paul Gardiner, Steve Klodt, Suzie McNeil, Robert Porter, and Dickson Zee.

Cotton and his band Hawk's Nest have been performing in the Toronto area for many years. This is his first solo CD.

Children's Chorus signs up 54 new singers

The Georgetown Children's Chorus has begun its 12th year with an overwhelming start. In the last few weeks, the choir has registered 54 new singers from the ages 5-18.

Directed by A. Dale Wood, the Georgetown Children's Chorus rehearses every Tuesday. The choir performs two major concerts a year at Christmas and in the spring, as well as performing at various community functions such as the yearly Remembrance Day ceremony; the Hospital Tree Lighting, and the Santa Claus parade.

On Dec. 6, the choir will sing traditional Christmas favourites as well as a cantata written by Dale Wood and a senior choir member who provided the words. In April, the kids are excited to perform the sounds of Broadway at the John Elliott Theatre.

Registration will continue for the next few weeks. Any child or teen interested in this experience should call Sharon at 905-877-6841, to obtain further registration information.

Art exhibition opens at the Gallery

A few months ago, three Georgetown artists, Maria Jennings, Bill Thoms and John Sommer, got together to see what they could do to demonstrate what a wealth of talent Georgetown and the surrounding areas contain. Space was secured in the Halton Hills Cultural Centre and the word went out.

Almost 40 artists responded and the result is an amazing collection of art ranging from cast bronze to stained glass, fibre art, clay work, painting (oil and water-colour) and more in an exhibition and sale, called Artists Among Us.

It will be held in the Gallery of the Halton Hills Cultural Centre, 9 Church St., in Georgetown, until October 27. The Gallery is open during library hours. Admission is free.

On Sunday, Oct. 5, a Meet the Artists Open House and Reception will be held from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Artcast, Inc. has lent a number of columns for the displays, allowing the wide assortment of works to show to advantage.

The artists come from Oakville, Burlington, Fergus, Glen Williams, Guelph, Brampton, Mississauga, Limehouse, Campbellville and Georgetown.
