

A long way from home

Captain Mark Staley, 40, an Acton native, is presently deployed for a six-month tour of duty in Kabul, Afghanistan. He is working as the Air Weapons Officer, part of the Kabul Multi-National Brigade (KMNB), the manoeuvre element of the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF). His primary task is to co-ordinate all aspects of fast air in the KMNB area of operations and his call sign within the aviation community is "R-Dog". He has 19 years of service with the Canadian Forces and his home base is in Petawawa. Staley has previously served in Bosnia and Kosovo and has worked with the U.S. in Alaska. He attended Robert Little Public School and graduated from Acton High School with honours.
