Halton Regional Police Chorus presents Harmony in Blue concert on Saturday

Halton Regional Police Chorus headlines Harmony in Blue, a concert also featuring Halton's Pipes & Drums band.

The concert will be held on Saturday, Oct. 18, 7:30 p.m. at the John Elliott Theatre, 9 Church St., Georgetown.

Tickets are adults $18, seniors (60+) $15 and students (under 16), $12. Call the Box Office at 905-877-3700.

Peel Regional Police Chief's Ceremonial Band, Goggin-Carroll School of Irish Dance and a cappella showcase of Milton are also on the bill.

Halton Regional Police Chorus was formed almost 20 years ago to spread Christmas cheer to seniors and shut-ins in Halton Region. The chorus is comprised of Halton Police staff and community members and continues to perform at local seniors homes and hospitals as well as special community and police fund-raising events.

The Halton Police Pipe and Drums band, wearing the Chisholm tartan, have been performing for more than 15 years. Last year, the band placed second overall for the season at the Grade 4 level.

Canadian playwright guests at CFUW dinner

Canadian Federation of University Women hosts its fall dinner meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 4, 7 p.m., at North Halton Golf & Country Club, Georgetown. Guest speaker is Canadian playwright, Dan Needles, author of a series of one-man plays featuring Walt Wingfield, the stockbroker-turned-farmer. He is also the winner of the 2003 Stephen Leacock Memorial Medal for Humour. For tickets call 416-726-5988.

Conservation Halton releases 2003 edition of nature book

The Conservation Halton Foundation launched the 2003 edition of its book Halton: Rising, Wild and Beckoning at the Halton Region Museum last week.

The revised book includes 175 photos, 17 trail maps and driving tours and a new chapter of wildlife.

"More than 12,000 books have been sold since 1998, with almost $300,000 raised for conservation—specifically for the renovation and expansion of the Visitors' Centre located at the Mountsberg Conservation Area," said Brian Penman, book committee chairman. The book is available at bookstores throughout Halton.
