Field Bulldogs end regular season with weekend victories

Todd Bloxam scored with just over two minutes to play as the Halton Hills Under-19 Bulldogs edged Scarborough 6-5 in Ontario Lacrosse Association field lacrosse play.

The Bulldogs later downed Ottawa

9-6 to wrap up the regular season with a record of 10-2, good for second place in the OLA's East Conference.

The Bulldogs will meet Six Nations at Etobicoke Centennial Park at 10:30 a.m. Sunday to open the provincial championship tournament.

Bloxam's winning goal was his second of the game. Neil Mayerhofer also scored twice.

Bloxam and Mayerhofer each had a hat-trick in the win over Ottawa.
