Back pain?

Georgetown, Ont. - According to a recently released back pain relief report, most back pain sufferers have no idea how to eliminate their pain. Some use heat, others ice, some sleep on the floor...to pillows under the legs, even injections in the back. Thanks to a free report, local back pain sufferers can finally know exactly what to do. To get a free copy, call the toll-free, 24-hour recorded message at 1-866-335-3189.

Volunteer needed

The North Halton Red Cross, is looking for a Home Healthcare Equipment Maintenance (HHES) volunteer. The HHES program provides for the short-term loan of medical equipment to the North Halton community who are recovering at home from injury or illness. The volunteer is responsible for the maintenance, cleaning and repair of health-care equipment (walkers, wheelchairs, bath aids etc.). An ideal person would like to work with their hands 'fixing things' and have one morning or afternoon a week to contribute. For details call 905-875-1459.

IN BRIEF

Successful SuperWalk

Following a very successful first annual SuperWalk and Run in aid of the Parkinson Society Canada, organizers Lisa Buck and her mother Marion Faulkner of the North Halton Parkinson Support Group, presented a $12,052.26 cheque to Parkinson Society Special Event coordinator Karen Dowell. The event was held in Georgetown South Community Park on Sept. 20, with 85 taking part. It consisted of a two kilometre walk and five kilometre run.
