

Police blotter

Man exposes himself to cabbie

Halton Police report a man exposed himself to a female cab driver Monday evening after she picked up a man at Guelph St. at Rexway Dr.

After the man exposed himself the cab driver stopped the cab and the man fled. He is described as white, 6', with shoulder length sandy blond hair, was wearing a grey jacket and blue jeans, and had a cellular phone.

Dirt bikes stolen

Police report two dirt bikes, a Honda and Suzuki valued at $2,500 each, were stolen from Automaster Transmission on Armstrong Ave. during a break and enter late Sunday or early Monday. Entry was gained after a window was broken in a sliding glass door.

Man faces theft charge

An Acton man is facing charges in connection with the theft of a 1973 Dodge Charger from Bratin's Auto on Main St.

Monday afternoon.

Police report the car had been left unattended with the key in the ignition. A man got in then drove forward over a four-foot embankment where the vehicle became stuck. Employees at the business held the man until police arrived.

Charged with theft over $5,000 is Daniel Schonnop, 41, of Main St.

Wood splitter taken

Halton Police are investigating the theft of a Kubota wood splitter valued at $2,000 from the back of a pickup truck parked at a King St. residence late Saturday and early Sunday.

Faces intoxication charge

A Brampton resident was charged after police saw a man staggering on the sidewalk on Mountainview Rd. near King St. Friday evening.

Charged with being intoxicated in a public place is Baldev Rye, 54, of National Cr.
