

A chance to soar!

Every child deserves the chance to soar to great heights with opportunities for the future. But with the challenges in education today, are they really getting a good chance?

At Oxford Learning, children are offered individual programs that address their needs in academics, learning styles and self-esteem. It is a system that offers them independence, for now and for the future.

Christmas is coming

Georgetown District High School recently held its 16th annual craft/art sale and among those checking out some early Christmas gifts was Tannis Raymond, from Georgetown, looking at some crafts from Bits & Bobs.
