At the upcoming annual Fraser Direct Charity Book Sale, there's something for everyone, as surprised employee Leanne Windsor discovered while browsing the samples to be offered this weekend. The sale runs Saturday (tomorrow) from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the company's 100 Armstrong Avenue location. There will be all sorts of books available, from how-to books to sports, handicrafts and computers. Last year, the sale raised $25,000, and again, all proceeds from this year's sale will go to various charities around town.

Thank You! Thank You!

I really want to thank my Family, My husband who suffered through another election and stood by me. He always had my dinner ready and was set to do whatever I needed. My Mother, my four Sons Brett, Kirk, Wade and Garth, their Families, the Volunteers and Supporters.

I especially want to thank Sandy Cameron, Cameron Web Designs (905-702-8492). I hope this experience helped to launch Sandy's business. She is great! Thank you to C&S Printing.

I enjoyed the campaign. I truly enjoyed the debates, the challenges and the energy. It was great to be back, even for 6 weeks.

Congratulations to Mayor Bonnette, Council & all the other candidates.
