Toastmasters say cheers to 20

Halton Hills Toastmasters Club celebrated its 20th anniversary recently with a celebration at its regular Monday meeting place, St. Alban's Church in the Glen.

The mission of the club is to provide a mutually supportive and positive learning environment, so that each member has the opportunity to develop communication and leadership skills, says Katherine Atkinson-Thomas, the club's VP Public Relations.

Halton Hills Toastmasters Club was started (chartered) in 1983 by John Walker, who still resides in the Glen Williams' area. The club has always met in the Glen Williams neighborhood, starting out in the old town hall and then at its present location, St. Alban's Parish, Main St., Glen Williams. The club meets every Monday (except holidays), 7:30 to 9:30 pm.

After 20 years, this small community club is still going strong, says Atkinson-Thomas. With over 40 people attending the celebration, including present members, District 60 (Ontario region) Toastmaster Governors past and present, past members and several guests, the night was deemed a success.

For more information on joining the Toastmasters Club call Patsy Tousignant, VP Membership, 905-873-1375/416-595-3642 or Katherine Atkinson-Thomas, VP Public Relations, 905-565-4233 or www.haltonhillstm.org.
