Cabaret opens next week

Georgetown Globe Productions brings the Broadway musical, Cabaret, to the John Elliott Theatre next week. The show opens Thursday, Nov. 20 and continues until Saturday, Nov. 29. Due to the mature content of the show, it is not recommended for children. Cabaret tells the story of Clifford Bradshaw (played by Paul Stodolny), an American writer who visits Berlin as the Nazis are beginning to come to power. He meets Sally Bowles (Cheyenne Harvey), a nightclub singer, and the two fall in love. However, tragedy is imminent, as the Nazi takeover begins. Tickets, $18, are still available through the JET Box Office at 905-877-3700 for all performances. Subscription tickets Globe's season of three shows are still available for $48 until Nov. 29.

InnerScapes opens fall show

The local art group, known as InnerScapes (Bea Dumbreck, Herta Hajek, Tizi Manierka, George Perdue, Eileen Simpson, Jan Zimmerman) is having a show in their gallery this weekend, 11 a.m. until 4 p.m., both days.

All the work is original and priced at $100 or less — hence the exhibit title, 100 Bucks in the Country. Pieces will feature a variety of styles, mediums, and sizes. Meet the artists and share a cup of hot cocoa. The gallery is located at 13261 Tenth Line, north of Glen Williams. Call 905-873-2178 if you need directions.

Musicians plan jam session

Come out to the Folk and Traditional Music Jam Session at the Shepherd's Crook Pub, 86 Main St., Georgetown on Monday (Nov. 17).

Between 8 p.m. and 10:30 p.m., musicians can bring their acoustic instruments, singers can bring their songs and all can jam to favourite tunes. All musicians are welcome, beginners to experts — it's all just for fun. A little nervous about joining in? Well, come out to listen and see if it's for you.

Drinking and Driving Starts Trouble.

If you're drinking, give someone else the keys to your car or you could be introduced to another set of keys — the keys to a cell at the local jail. Imprisonment, license suspension, hefty fines, injury or even death are some of the obstacles you face when you drink and drive. Always drive sober and steer clear of trouble.
