

Shear fun

After recently losing his father Warren Smith to cancer, Georgetown Terminal Warehouse (GTW) employee Errol Smith, 22, decided to hold a fund-raiser at work by collecting pledges to have his hair cut. Smith raised a total of $1,140, which was donated to Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills (CAS-HH). Taking part in the ceremonial shearing were (from left) GTW human resources manager Karen Hughes, president Brenda Sisnett, bond receiver Ray Hiscocks and CAS-HH reps Diane Malcolm and Sheila Smith.
