

Holiday House Tour set for tomorrow

Get a peek inside some area homes and Christmas decorating ideas in the United Way of Halton Hills Home for the Holidays House Tour tomorrow (Saturday).

The tour, which will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. will feature six different Halton Hills homes decorated for the holidays.

All money raised will go to the United Way of Halton Hills.

Houses on the tour include two in Acton, two in Glen Williams, one in Norval and another in Georgetown.

Moorecroft, a Queen Anne-style home located on Church St. E. in Acton and built in 1896, will be one of the homes on the tour. It is decorated by Decorating Den, and the florist is Blue Springs Flower Shop.

Another home on the tour, located on 25 Sideroad in Acton, is an early French-Canadian-style stone farmhouse nestled in old growth cedars. Decorating will be done by Bos Interiors and Windswept Florists.

One of the Glen Williams homes on the tour, located on McMaster St., is a 1910 late Victorian reproduction home decorated by Blossoms Up Inc. and Garden Gate Florist.

The other home in the Glen, on Main St., was designed to harmonize with the existing century homes in the area and features soaring views of the countryside. It is decorated by Joan Robson Interior Design and the florist is C.W. Horticultural.

The Norval home featured, located on Guelph St., is a 1912 Edwardian-style house that has 10-foot ceilings, wide halls and lots of wood and stained glass windows. The decorator for this home is Robert Hurst, and the florist is Garden Gate Florist.

A Samuel Cr. Georgetown South home on the tour is well known for its summer gardens and outdoor Christmas lighting. Fran Quart is the decorator of this home and the florist is Garden Gate Florist.

Tickets for the house tour are $20 and are available through the United Way office at 905-877-3066 or in Georgetown at Blossoms Up & Company, C.W. Horticultural, Bos Interiors, The Ivy House, Fendley Florist, Prosperity One, and ReMax. They are also available at Blue Springs Flower and Gift Shop and Wetherby's in Acton, Best's Harbour and Glen Oven in Glen Williams, and through United Way board and University Women's Club members.
