Georgetown Bach Chorale to perform four yuletide concerts

Georgetown Bach Chorale opens its Christmas season with Advent Concert on Nov. 29 and 30.

Performances will be held on Saturday, Nov. 29, 8 p.m. in Georgetown's Knox Church and on Sunday, Nov. 30, 2 p.m. at St. James Church in Caledon East.

The Chorale, with a chamber orchestra and guest soloists, features Handel's Chandos Anthem No. 2- In the Lord I Put My Trust and Bach's Cantata 109 and Piano Concerto No. 5. Tickets are $20, and available at Foodstuffs and Young's Pharmacy.

An intimate Christmas Concert and Reception follows on Friday, Dec. 19 and Saturday, Dec. 20 in a private home. The Georgetown Bach Chorale performs Elizabethan and Renaissance carols and other season music accompanied by cello, harpsichord and recorder. Tickets, $35, are limited to 60 persons, and must be purchased in advance.

In late March, the Chorale launches its annual Spring Festival. Menage a Trois—Piano Trio kicks off the musical month-long festival on Friday, March 26 and Saturday, March 28, again in intimate setting of a private home. This chamber concert with clarinet, cello and piano features Beethoven's Clarinet Trio in B flat major, Op. 11, Brahms' Sonata for Clarinet and Piano in F minor, Op. 120 and Chopin's Sonata for Cello and Piano in G minor, Op. 65.

Tickets, $35, are limited to 60 persons and must be purchased in advance.

Music for Good Friday is the second concert in the series. The Chorale performs with the chamber orchestra and guest soloists on Friday, April 9, 8 p.m. at Georgetown's Knox Church. Selections include Purcell's Funeral Music for Queen Mary; William Byrd's Ave Verum Corpus; Locatelli's Violin Concerto in C minor, No. 2, Op. 3 and Bach's Cantata 105. Tickets are $20.

Mezzo soprano Michele Bogdanowicz and tenor Michael McBride perform romantic works by Turina, Rachmaninoff and Borodin in Chansons d'amour. This chamber recital for piano and two voices will be held on Sunday, April 18, 7 p.m. at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre's Gallery. Tickets are $20.

The finale of the Spring Festival is Gala Concert on Saturday, May 1, 8 p.m. at Georgetown, St. John's Church and on Sunday, May 2, 2 p.m. on St. James Church in Caledon East. Selections by the Chorale, chamber orchestra and guest soloists include Mozart's Eine Kleine Nacht Musik, Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 5 in D major and Schubert's Mass in G major. Tickets are $20.

Tickets for all concerts are available at Foodstuffs and Young's Pharmacy or can be ordered by mail: send cheque or money order to Georgetown Bach Chorale, 47 Main St. St., PO Box 91556, Georgetown, ON, L7G5M9.

Guild hooks banner for GLT

The Georgetown Rug Hooking Guild recently completed its two-year project with the presentation of another banner in aid of Georgetown Little Theatre (GLT). The banner was hung in John Elliott Theatre as GLT's Cookin' with Gus opened earlier this month. On hand for the presentation were (from left) Rug Hooking Guild members Bonnie Waterfield and Carol Bullock, and long-time GLT member Dorothy Hunt.
