Networking Luncheon

MEET OUR DECEMBER KEYNOTE SPEAKER

We all wonder, at one time or another, what we really want out of our lives and the older we get the more entrenched this thought becomes in our mind. The hustle of every day living has hampered our opportunity to truly enjoy life and get the most out of our experiences.

During the past 22 years Sandra Cousens has gained a diploma in Psychology and Wellness Education, maintained a superior marriage to the same gentleman and raised two wonderful teenagers. A majority of her experiences raising a family in the modern world and developing her own business at such a young age has given her the opportunity to sort out those of us lost in our direction or purpose in today's heavily-competitive atmosphere. Sandra Cousens is a lifestyle consultant in Halton Hills at Make your Move.
