Letters to the editor

Air cadets commended

Dear editor,

I would like to bring to your attention the tremendous contribution of the officers and cadets of 756 Squadron, Royal Canadian Air Cadets, Georgetown for their exemplary performance November 8-11.

On Nov. 8 almost a full complement of officers and cadets attended the Georgetown Santa Claus parade. This entailed a march from one end of Georgetown to the other, a not inconsiderable distance. The weather was windy and cool.

On Saturday night several cadets attended a legion dinner in Georgetown after the parade and served dinner to members of Branch 120.

On Sunday, Nov. 9, a full complement of officers and cadets attended a Remembrance Day parade at the Glen Williams Cenotaph at 12:30 p.m. and at 2.30 p.m. attended another Remembrance Day parade in Georgetown. Both these parades entailed a considerable amount of marching with their very fine band.

Almost all of these cadets then attended regular parade at the Georgetown armouries and on Nov. 11 six cadets attended the Georgetown Cenotaph, four of them mounting an honour guard on the Cenotaph steps, another providing a drum accompaniment for the marchers and yet another an extremely fine rendition of Taps during the ceremony at all three parades.

The performance of both officers and cadets at these events made me proud to be associated with these fine young men and women. The officers set a fine example of leadership at its best and the time volunteered by these cadets shows a willingness to serve the community that is all too often overlooked in these trying times. It should be pointed out that these young people range in age from 12-18 and set a fine example for our youth.

John Tatham, Georgetown

We'd like to thank our staff who volunteered their time, our generous publishers, and The Independent & Free Press, for giving us such great publicity.

The recipients this year will be: The Salvation Army, Halton Women's Place, Cancer Assistance Service, Dominion Gardens project, Literacy North Halton and others. We will also be purchasing a portable cardiac monitor for the emergency room at Georgetown hospital.
