Georgetown Children's Chorus performs Sounds of the Season on December 6

Georgetown Children's Chorus performs its annual Christmas concert on Saturday, Dec. 6.

About 180 children and teens ranging in age from 5-18 will entertain audiences with choral arrangements of everyone's favourite Christmas songs.

The Georgetown Children's Chorus, directed by A. Dale Wood, will perform Sounds of the Season, at Christ the King Catholic Secondary School theatre at 2 p.m. and again at 7 p.m.

The five choirs that comprise the Chorus will sing a variety of popular and spiritual Christmas music that many will recognize.

The highlight will be a cantata written by Wood and one of the choir members, Brooke Penley. The Intermediates (ages 9-11), the Seniors (ages 12-18) and the Performance Choirs will perform the cantata, which includes nine different sections.

As well, the Cherubs (ages 5-6) who continue to be unpredictable and delightful on stage will sing a selection of songs that includes Old Toy Trains and Gentle Donkey.

The Junior Choir (ages 7-8) will present a rendition of Love in a Magical Way. The Intermediates will also keep it rhythmic with Ebenezer Scrooge and Cool Santa. The Seniors will also perform the Irving Berlin standard White Christmas.

The Performance choir, which is made up of members from the Intermediate choir and Senior choir, will also perform a choral arrangement of the ever popular The Christmas Song (Chestnuts Roasting on an Open Fire).

Tickets are $10 (adults) and $7 (under 18) and can be obtained by calling 905-877-6841.

Georgetown Choral Society Journeys Through Christmas

As the holiday season approaches, the more than 80 members of the Georgetown Choral Society have been preparing for its 2003-2004 season's opening concert, A Journey Through Christmas.

The evenings of Saturday, Dec. 13 and Sunday, Dec. 14 will include performances of Christmas carols as well as delightful season selections. A. Dale Wood directs the Choral Society, which will be joined by guest accompanists Christopher Dawes and Bev Foster.

The concert will be held in the town's newest venue—Christ the King Secondary School's theatre. Reserved seating is available.

Tickets, $18 adults and $15 seniors and seniors, can be purchased at Bergsma's in the Georgetown Market Place, at The Freckled Lion on Main St. or from any choir member.

For more information call 905-873-2559.

Check out this vintage model, a 1953 classic. The only one produced on December 1st, 50 years ago. On original block, little rust, however a few wrinkles on body. Springs a little weak, rear end OK. Upholstery retaining it's shape, but slightly sun damaged due to exposure. Able to blow gasket if overheated. Has been overloaded twice, with minimal body damage. Engine in good running condition, but temperamental in cold weather. May soon need headlight adjusted. Needs new muffler, as is becoming louder with age. To view this exceptional antique, call 1-800-Phyllis, pride of Re/Max Blue Springs, Acton.
