

Seniors support Santa

Lest we forget! The Georgetown Seniors Centre welcomed Ormie Carter to our luncheon Nov. 18. Mr. Carter was a member of the Special Forces during the Second World War, fighting in Italy and France. He spoke to us about some of his experiences during his service. Last summer he traveled to France to visit the Juno Beach monument to Canadian troops who died in the war. He showed a film of the construction of this monument, noting that there is a Georgetown connection—the actual statue was cast at Artcast here in Georgetown. Thank you, sir for your presentation.

Don't forget our tree-trimming party on Tuesday, Dec. 2 at 1 p.m. Come out and help decorate the tree, hear our own band and enjoy some light refreshments. Speaking of Christmas, we are aiding the Salvation Army in their drive for non-perishable food items and unwrapped children's gifts for their gift hampers. Please drop your gifts at the centre or bring to the dinner on Dec. 9. Tickets are also on sale for the Christmas dinner Dec. 9 at noon. Cost is $18 per person for a turkey dinner.

Some dates to mark on your calendar: Dec. 1 at 1:30 p.m., bingo, members only; Dec. 2 at 7 p.m., euchre, all welcome; Dec. 6 at 7 p.m., bid euchre, all welcome.

Where Child Abuse Hurts Most

Sometimes the worst scars of child abuse can't be seen. Whether physical or emotional, abuse attacks a child's self-esteem and emotional development, leaving long-term emotional trauma and pain. You can help prevent child abuse by being a nurturing parent or caregiver. By letting children know they are special, competent and loved, you can help them develop positive self-images and happier futures.

If you feel overwhelmed, angry or frustrated as a parent, help is out there for you. Look in your area for support groups and services, or talk to a trusted friend, family member, pastor or doctor about what you can do to protect and support your child. If we all do our part to prevent child abuse, we'll get to the heart of the matter.
