

POWERful trees

POWER (Protect Our Water and Environmental Resources) past president Barbara Halsall congratulates Ted Gorth of Georgetown, winner of a six-foot Blue Spruce. It was the prize in POWER's raffle to promote their tree program. POWER has been busy over the last five planting seasons providing over 6,300 student day trips for environmental education and tree planting. Students have fun while they meet curriculum objectives and provide service to the community. People wanting to support POWER and do some landscaping or plant a wind break, can call check out POWER's Web site www.power.stn.net
