Bulldog's record-setting effort anything but Bland

Jou can't accuse Halton Hills Bulldogs coach Gerald Veltman of not having a long-term vision.

Eleven years ago, Veltman convinced Travis Bland's parents to put a lacrosse stick in their son's hands. At the time, Veltman was coaching tyke in Brampton and there wasn't even a minor lacrosse program in Bland's hometown.

"They always thought he was a hockey player," Veltman said. "I thought he was a lacrosse player. He's starting to show that I might have been right."

Is he ever. Bland set a Bulldog team record with 10 points in Saturday's 16-12 win over the Scarborough Saints. Bland's four-goal, sixassist effort broke the mark shared by Richard Haan, Ryan Busby and Ryan Bigler. That trio each put up nine points in a game but nobody had cracked double figures since the Bulldogs joined the Ontario Lacrosse Association's Jr. B loop 10 years ago.

"When (GM Mike Hancock) told me after the game, I thought he was joking. I was pretty shocked," Bland said. "I had no clue how many points I had until he showed me the game sheet. I didn't even start off that good. My legs were kind of dead from the bus ride. I didn't really pick it up until about 10 minutes in."

Bland tallied all 10 points in less than 40 minutes. He didn't get his first point until 13:16 into the opening period when he set up Chad Artem. By the time he assisted on Tyler Phillips' goal for his record 10th point, there was still 7:44 to play.

And the points didn't come in a blowout. The Bulldogs, coming off a lastminute 9-8 loss to Akwesasne last week, held a slim 8-6 lead late in the second when Bland set up three straight power play

"It just took a little bit of confidence in himself," Veltman said. "He's always worked hard, be it hockey or lacrosse."

Bland said after being more of an outside shooter last season, he is cutting to the Barrie....Sunday they host the Green Gaels net more. That's made him a threat from at 6 p.m. at the Alcott Arena.

And there are no shortage of Bulldog threats. Mike Dube and Matt Lyons each had a hat-trick Saturday, Chad Artem scored twice and Joe O'Halloran had a goal and four assists.

Sunday at home, the Bulldogs improved to 4-1 on the season when Bland and Dube each put up three goals and four assists in a 12-5 win over Wallaceburg.

Through five games, Dube leads the team with 30 points—just 10 fewer than he had all of last season.

"I don't know if he was playing with the right players last year," Veltman said. "We really called upon him to put up some points and he has."

Lyons delivered his second consecutive hat-trick and O'Halloran and Todd Holinshead each had a goal and three assists.
