Georgetown Choral Society repeats popular Missa Gaia spring concert

Two years ago, in the midst of an unseasonable heat wave, the Georgetown Choral Society (GCS) performed two incredible sold out concerts of Missa Gaia by Paul Halley and the Paul Winter Consort. Despite the warmth created by the weather and the energy of the performers, everyone in the hall were totally involved in this exciting music.

From Gregorian chant, gospel, and African musical styles, to the inclusion of the sounds of the Northern loon, humpback whale and the wolf, and a wonderful visual presentation, this evening had something for everyone.

This year, on May 20, the Georgetown Choral Society, directed by A. Dale Wood, will be joined by the Achill Choral Society as well as members of the Georgetown Children's Choir, soloists Alana Bridgewater and performer/composer Paul Halley as Missa Gaia is once again performed at Hammerson Hall in the Living Arts Centre in Mississauga.

Tickets are $25/20/15 and are available at Bergsma's Paint and Wallpaper in the Georgetown Market Place, The Freckled Lion on Main Street, and from choir members.
