

Hooking hat-trick

Three local rug hookers brought home three of the five top awards at the Ontario Hooking Craft Guild show at the Oakville Conference Centre as they topped they classes in the competition which featured more than 600 entries. From left, Cheronne Morris won first in the wide cut class, Shirley Lyons won first for her fine cut/shading entry and her daughter Cathy Turner won top marks in the oriental design class. Entries at the show represented 31 branches of the guild from all over Ontario. The local branch currently boasts about 80 members, but is always looking for more.
