

Police hosting a Family Festival at headquarters tomorrow

This week is Police Week, and the Halton Regional Police Service is celebrating that by hosting its 5th Annual Police Day tomorrow (Saturday) from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. at our headquarters at 1151 Bronte Rd in Oakville.

Why, you ask, should I haul myself and my family halfway across the world to Oakville? There are all kinds of reasons, besides the fact that it is free!

We call this day a "Family Festival" because there are all kinds of fun activities for all ages. There is a climbing wall, the Royal Ontario Museum Dinomobile, an obstacle course, a castle maze, a junior bouncer, a duck pond, face painting, and many other children's activities— all free!

There are many tribute performances to Hilary Duff, Barenaked Ladies, U2, Allan Jackson, Brooks & Dunn, to name a few— all free!

Dad will enjoy visiting the vintage vehicle display. Each department within the police service will have a display to highlight what they do. There will be displays by the Education Services, the Tactical Rescue Unit, Explosive Devices Unit, Regional Traffic, Training, etc. Other emergency services will also have displays; such are fire departments, ambulance, coast guard, GO, MADD, OPP, RCMP, and others— all free!

There will be a silent auction, penny sale, and charity barbecue. The proceeds will go to the Make A Wish Foundation, Special Olympics and Halton

Food for Thought. You will be able to get some great items for great prices and benefit great charities.

As I have mentioned, the day is free, but if you choose to bid on items at the silent auction or try your luck at the penny sale you will be helping someone very close to you. The Make A Wish Foundation has selected a child from Halton Region each year that we have supported the charity. This year an eight-year-old girl from Georgetown will be able to have her wish granted.

I hope you can make it out to our day learn about our service and how we do our jobs, have some fun and help out some charities.

If you have any questions about this or any other police-related topic contact me at 905-878-5511 ext 2120 or laurel.barnett@hrps.on.ca
