

Bear sharing

Adams at UN

Georgetown resident and POWER board member Leslie Adams recently spent two weeks in New York participating as part of the official Canadian delegation for the 12th United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development. Adams (seen here with Halton MP Julian Reed) was selected by the Canadian Environmental Network for the position. The conference, held at the United Nations headquarters, focused on human settlement, fresh water and sanitation. Adams was representing the position of Canadian, environmental, and non-government organizations for the conference.
