Just a little about our legions. In 2003, veterans program spending was close to $325,640 in Ontario. We operate the Provincial Service Bureau for all veterans, ex-service personnel and peacekeepers to assist with pension applications and benefit concerns on an ongoing basis. We also sponsor and provide facilities for low-cost housing for seniors citizens. In 2003, seniors program spending totaled $862,340. More than $400,000 in bursaries are awarded annually in Ontario by branches and ladies auxiliary. Legions have donated over $100,000 to Easter Seals in the last 26 years. The Poppy Trust Fund has donated $822,321 for medical equipment and research in Ontario. We sponsor Scouting, Guiding and Cadet organizations to the nature of $4.5 million per year across Canada.

In 2003 the Ontario legion branches donated $3.38 million from lottery proceeds to local charities. For more information visit us on Ontario Command Web site, www.on.legion.ca or phone 905-841-7999.

ANNUAL TENT SALE this weekend, May 15 & 16. We will have the most popular models on display and any that we don't have can be ordered at the sale price. We sell a lot of Eureka tents, mainly because their warranty and repair services are so good. The warehouse is in Burlington. You may think you're getting a good price from the larger stores until you have to get a pole or zipper repaired. The Eureka Bon Echo 9 is one of the most popular family tents. It sleeps 5, has a great vestibule with full fly, window and 2 doors for easy access. Combine that with the Eureka dining tent, complete with weather flaps and you have the perfect family campsite. Looking for small and light? Have a look at what Sierra Designs has to offer.
