8 MEET THE CREW

Georgetown's original muffler shop started on a 'shoe string', seven dollars and a credit card according to Roger Smith, founder and co-owner of RJ's Muffler, 225 Main St. (8th Line). The shop originally RS Muffler on Mountainview back in 1978 is celebrating its tenth anniversary this May at the new location, which Smith co-owns with John Byderate, both certified automotive technicians.

Since moving to the new location down the Cedarvale Hill, RJ's Muffler has acquired a 7.5 acre lot, four bay/hoist garage, is equipped for full automotive service and also acts as a used car dealership and scrap yard.
