

Annual Summer Safety Blitz promises a day of fun June 5

On Saturday, June 5 the Risk Watch Coalition is holding its third annual Summer Safety Blitz in conjunction with Skate Jam from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex. We have a fun day planned for kids of all ages and their parents.

There will be displays by all of the emergency services, the regional health department, and the Town of Halton Hills about various safety topics. There will be a bike rodeo, a car seat clinic, and a bicycle helmet clinic.

All of this activity sounds like it could cause an appetite. Well, you're in luck! Ray Johnson and Associates will be sponsoring the barbecue again! There will be balloons for kids, also courtesy of Ray J. If you are lucky, you may see Sparky, Siren or Buckle Up Bear making the rounds.

Boardtopia will be organizing and sponsoring Skate Jam. Bring your skateboard and try your luck at the skate park. Don't forget, helmets are mandatory to take part. All participants will receive something. If you would like to have your child's car seat inspected, and learn how to install it properly yourself, call 905-878-5511 ext 2120 to book an appointment.

More than 90 per cent of car seats are incorrectly installed. Ensure your child's safety while traveling and gain some peace of mind.

We are looking for students to assist us, so if you need some volunteer hours, contact me. We'll need you from about 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The Risk Watch Coalition invites everyone to come out on Saturday, June 5 to the Mold-Masters SportsPlex on Guelph St, right next to the police station to learn about safety and enjoy the barbecue.

See you there!
