

Idol

Paisley Snow (left) and Emily Mason were trying out for the Canadian Idol competition in the recent Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department Summer Musical theatre camp's production of Broadway Beginnings at John Elliott Theatre.

Photo by Ted Brown

Paper Apple' campaign under way

September is Breakfast for Learning Month, and child nutrition programs across the country are celebrating by couraging children to eat right and be

The Food for Thought Community artners Program is celebrating with its aper Apple' Campaign that not only raises ands but increases awareness for the need school nutrition programs.

This year the campaign in Halton runs om September 1-15. Corporate Sponsors in alton include the Georgetown Canadian re store, the RBC Financial Group in all 15 canches throughout Halton, GoodLife tness Centre at the Burlington Mall and the Oakville Canadian Tire store. These consors will sell paper apples to customers raising awareness and funds for our school nutrition programs.

In Halton there are currently 28 school nutrition programs. These programs serve more than 10,000 students with approximately 487 volunteers. The Food for Thought vision strives to promote healthy eating for improved learning for all schoolaged children and youth in Halton.

The Halton Food for Thought Community Partners Program collaborative is made up of the YMCA of Oakville Host Agency, Halton District School Board, Halton Catholic District School Board, Halton Region Health Department, Halton Region Social & Community Services, Burlington Family YMCA and Volunteer Community Representatives.

It's easy to Do-It-Yourself
with Unilock's DIY
Support Program.
Ask us how!

Georgetown Location

287 Armstrong Avenue 1-800-UNILOCK www.unilock.com/gp

