Following the annual William McNally Golf Classic tournament at North Halton Golf and Country Club, organizers (from left) John McNally, Floria McNally, and David McNally presented a cheque for $30,000 to William Osler Health Centre Foundation chair Paul Armstrong to be used to purchase medical equipment at the Georgetown campus.

O'Leary wants protection for 'double-hatters'

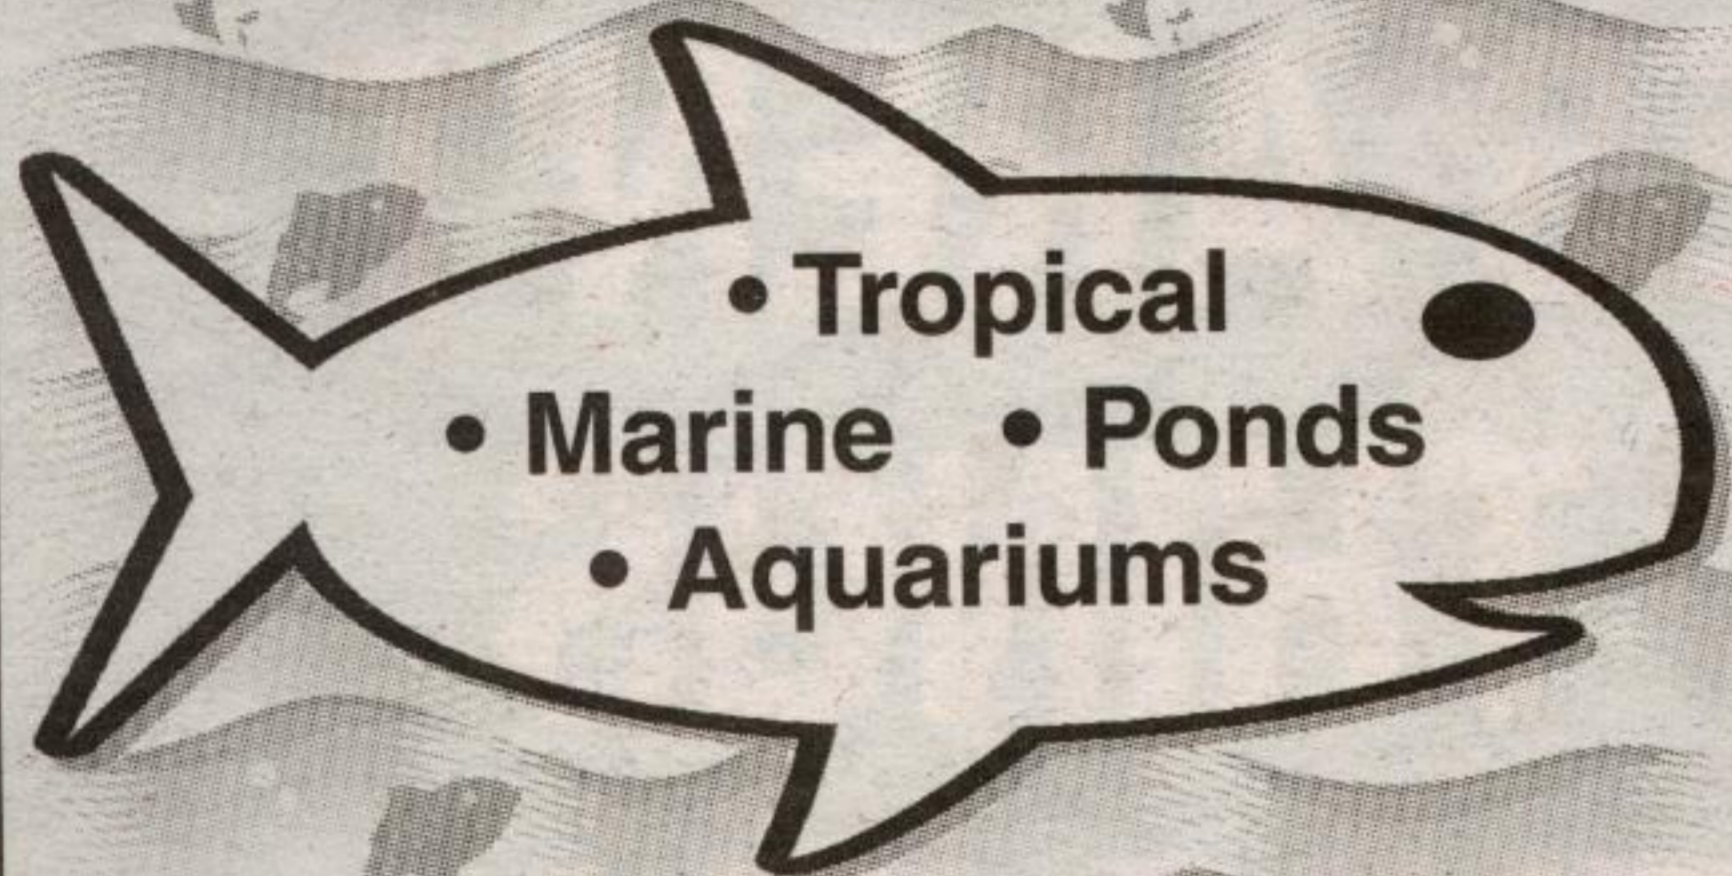

A resolution by Acton Councillor Mike O'Leary has called on the provincial government to protect firefighters who serve in both a career and volunteer capacity, from the unions.

Known as "double hatters", some of these firefighters are being pressured to quit their part-time volunteer jobs by firefighters' unions. O'Leary says the Ontario Labour Legislation leaves firefighters' rights unprotected.

The Town of Halton Hills relies on part-time (volunteer) firefighters to provide fire service here.
