

Sports camp celebrates milestone

The Halton Sports & Fitness Camp celebrated its 25th anniversary recently. The camp, founded by Bob McKay (back, left) and now operated by Grant Clatworthy (back, right), began in 1979 and at one time had camps Acton and Milton, in addition to the original camp in Georgetown. Over the years, more than 2,500 kids have taken part in the camp and many of the participants have come back to work at the camp as leaders. Among those taking part in this year's camp were (front, from left) Madison Vella, Spencer Borotsik, Bryn Drummond, Stephanie Wilson, Olivia Keast, Claire Luty, Alyssa Francis, (back, from left) Jake MacNeil and Eion Campbell.

Rep soccer roundup Eagles grab point from league powerhouse

The Georgetown van Wissen Garden Centre Boys Under-13 Mustangs rallied from a 2-0 deficit to earn a 2-2 draw with St. Catharines. With the tie, Georgetown became just the second team to earn a point against St. Catharines this season.

Erik van Wissen scored both goals assisted by Michael Steller and Travis Wright. Mitchell Racinsky and Victor Thompson played stellar defensive games for the Mustangs, who are in the hunt for third place in the South Region First Division.

Earlier, first-place Brampton blanked Georgetown 3-0 to end their five-game unbeaten streak. However, the Mustangs bounced back to edge Waterloo 1-0.

Van Wissen scored the winner on a great pass by Travis Wright.

Matt George got the shutout.

The Mustangs have just two losses in their last 17 games.

Girls Under-11 Mustangs

The Georgetown Girls Under-11 Mustangs reached the semifinals of the Brantford International Soccer Tournament but were knocked out on a controversial goal.

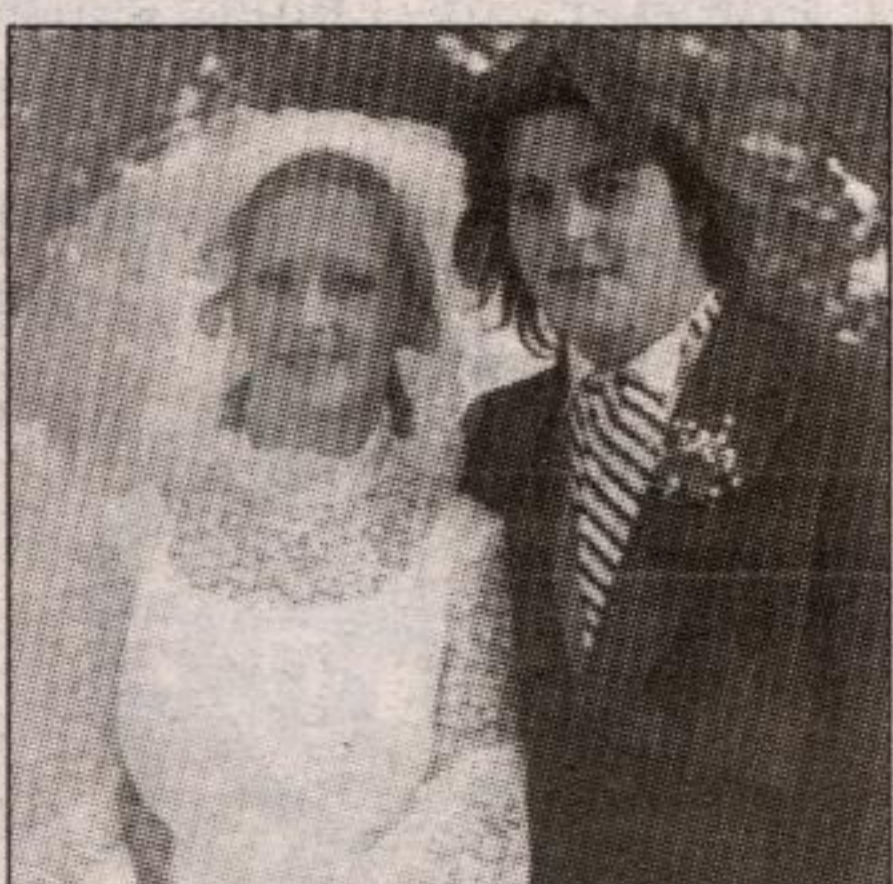

Kitchener edged Georgetown 1-0 in the semis on a goal with less than two minutes to play. Mustang defender Amanda Larade had the ball near midfield but was pulled down by a Kitchener forward. Larade was injured but the play continued and Kitchener scored the winning goal with the Mustang player still lying at midfield.

The Mustangs opened the tournament with a 7-0 win over North London. Amanda Knoepfli had two goals for the Mustangs while Nicole Waters, Larade, Jaden Todd, Natasha Green and Melissa Morgan also scored. Mackenzie Rees and Joelle Navarro combined on the shutout.

Georgetown then rolled to a 6-1 victory over York United. Larade scored twice from outside the box while Michelle Seedhouse, Morgan, Holly Bigg and Todd had the other goals.

Georgetown posted its third straight convincing win by blanking Chatham 7-0 to earn a bye to the semifinals. Rebecca Dickinson netted a pair while Green, Bigg, Sheena Glen, Todd and Seedhouse added singles. Bigg and Rees shared the shutout.

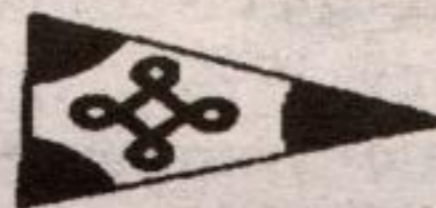

Happy 25th Anniversary Mom & Dad
