

Region's financial assistance plan makes it easier to access dental care

A new financial assistance program approved by Halton Regional Council is making it easier for some area residents to get dental care.

The program—Dental Care Counts—provides funding for Halton's frail elderly and adults with special needs who in the past haven't been able to access dental care due to financial constraints.

"We recognize that dental health is an integral part of the community's overall health," said regional chairman Joyce Savoline.

Financial assistance may be available for those who:

- Have a dental need
- Have difficulty paying for dental treatment and,
- Have difficulty with one or more of the following activities of daily living, getting in and out of bed and the shower, going up and down stairs.

Since 1998 the region has been working with the community to address the oral health needs of the frail elderly and adults with special needs through the Halton Oral Health Outreach program.

Halton's Oral Health Outreach committee is looking at making the Dental Care Counts program more accessible for low income adults.

For more information about the Halton Oral Health Outreach (HOHO) program call the health department at 1-866-4HALTON or visit the Web site at www.region.halton.on.ca/health.
