Learn how to be part of 'caring community'

Concerned about your community? Learn how to use the strengths of your community to become caring neighbourhoods.

Expert John McKnight, who has worked with communities across North America for almost 30 years, will share his insights on how to use the talents of local citizens and community groups to solve problems.

Two sessions will be held in the John

Elliott Theatre on Wednesday, Sept. 22, from 1-3 p.m. and from 7-9 p.m.

This event is presented by the United Way of Halton Hills, the Region of Halton, the HHEY (Halton Hills Enabling Youth) Committee, The Parent Education Network and the Town of Halton Hills

Registration is free but space is limited. To reserve a spot, call 905-877-3066 or e-mail strachanuwhh@Aztec-net.com.

Vendors wanted for community fund-raisers

A number of organizations and schools are having sales and craft shows in the coming weeks, and are looking for vendors to participate.

Vendors are welcome at a trunk sale to be held at St. John's Church in Stewarttown (Trafalgar Rd. at 15 Sideroad) on Sept. 25, starting at 8 a.m. Info: 905-877-7563.

Vendors are required for the Fall Mom to Mom sale to be held at St. Alban's Anglican Church, Acton on Sept. 25, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Rent a table to sell your children's outgrown clothes, toys, games, books, etc., as well as cribs, strollers, high chairs and playpens. For information or to rent a table, call Susanne, 519-853-0390.

Georgetown District Christian School will host its first Bazaar Harvest Festival Oct. 16. For table reservations and inquiries call 905-702-1925.

Vendors are now being accepted for Acton High School's annual craft sale, which will be held Nov. 13, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. This is a juried show presented by the AHS Advisory Council. For more information and an application form, call the school, 519-853-2920.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Regional Road 25 Improvements at Campbellville Road - Industrial Development Town of Milton

The Planning and Public Works Committee for the Regional Municipality of Halton proposed at its meeting on Wednesday, September 15th, 2004 to recommend to Regional Council at its meeting of Wednesday, September 22nd, 2004 to pass a by-law for the construction of a northbound right-turn lane and extension of the westbound left-turn lane on Regional Road 25 at Campbellville Road in the Town of Halton Hills. These road improvements are required to service the development of the northeast quadrant of this intersection for a 9-lot rural industrial plan of subdivision.

Construction drawings showing the proposed work may be reviewed at the Planning & Public Works Department, Halton Regional Centre, 1151 Bronte Road, Oakville.

For further information, or to arrange an appointment to review the drawings, please contact Mr. Matt Krusto, Transportation Co-ordinator at extension 7225.
