

Rebels hold b-ball camp

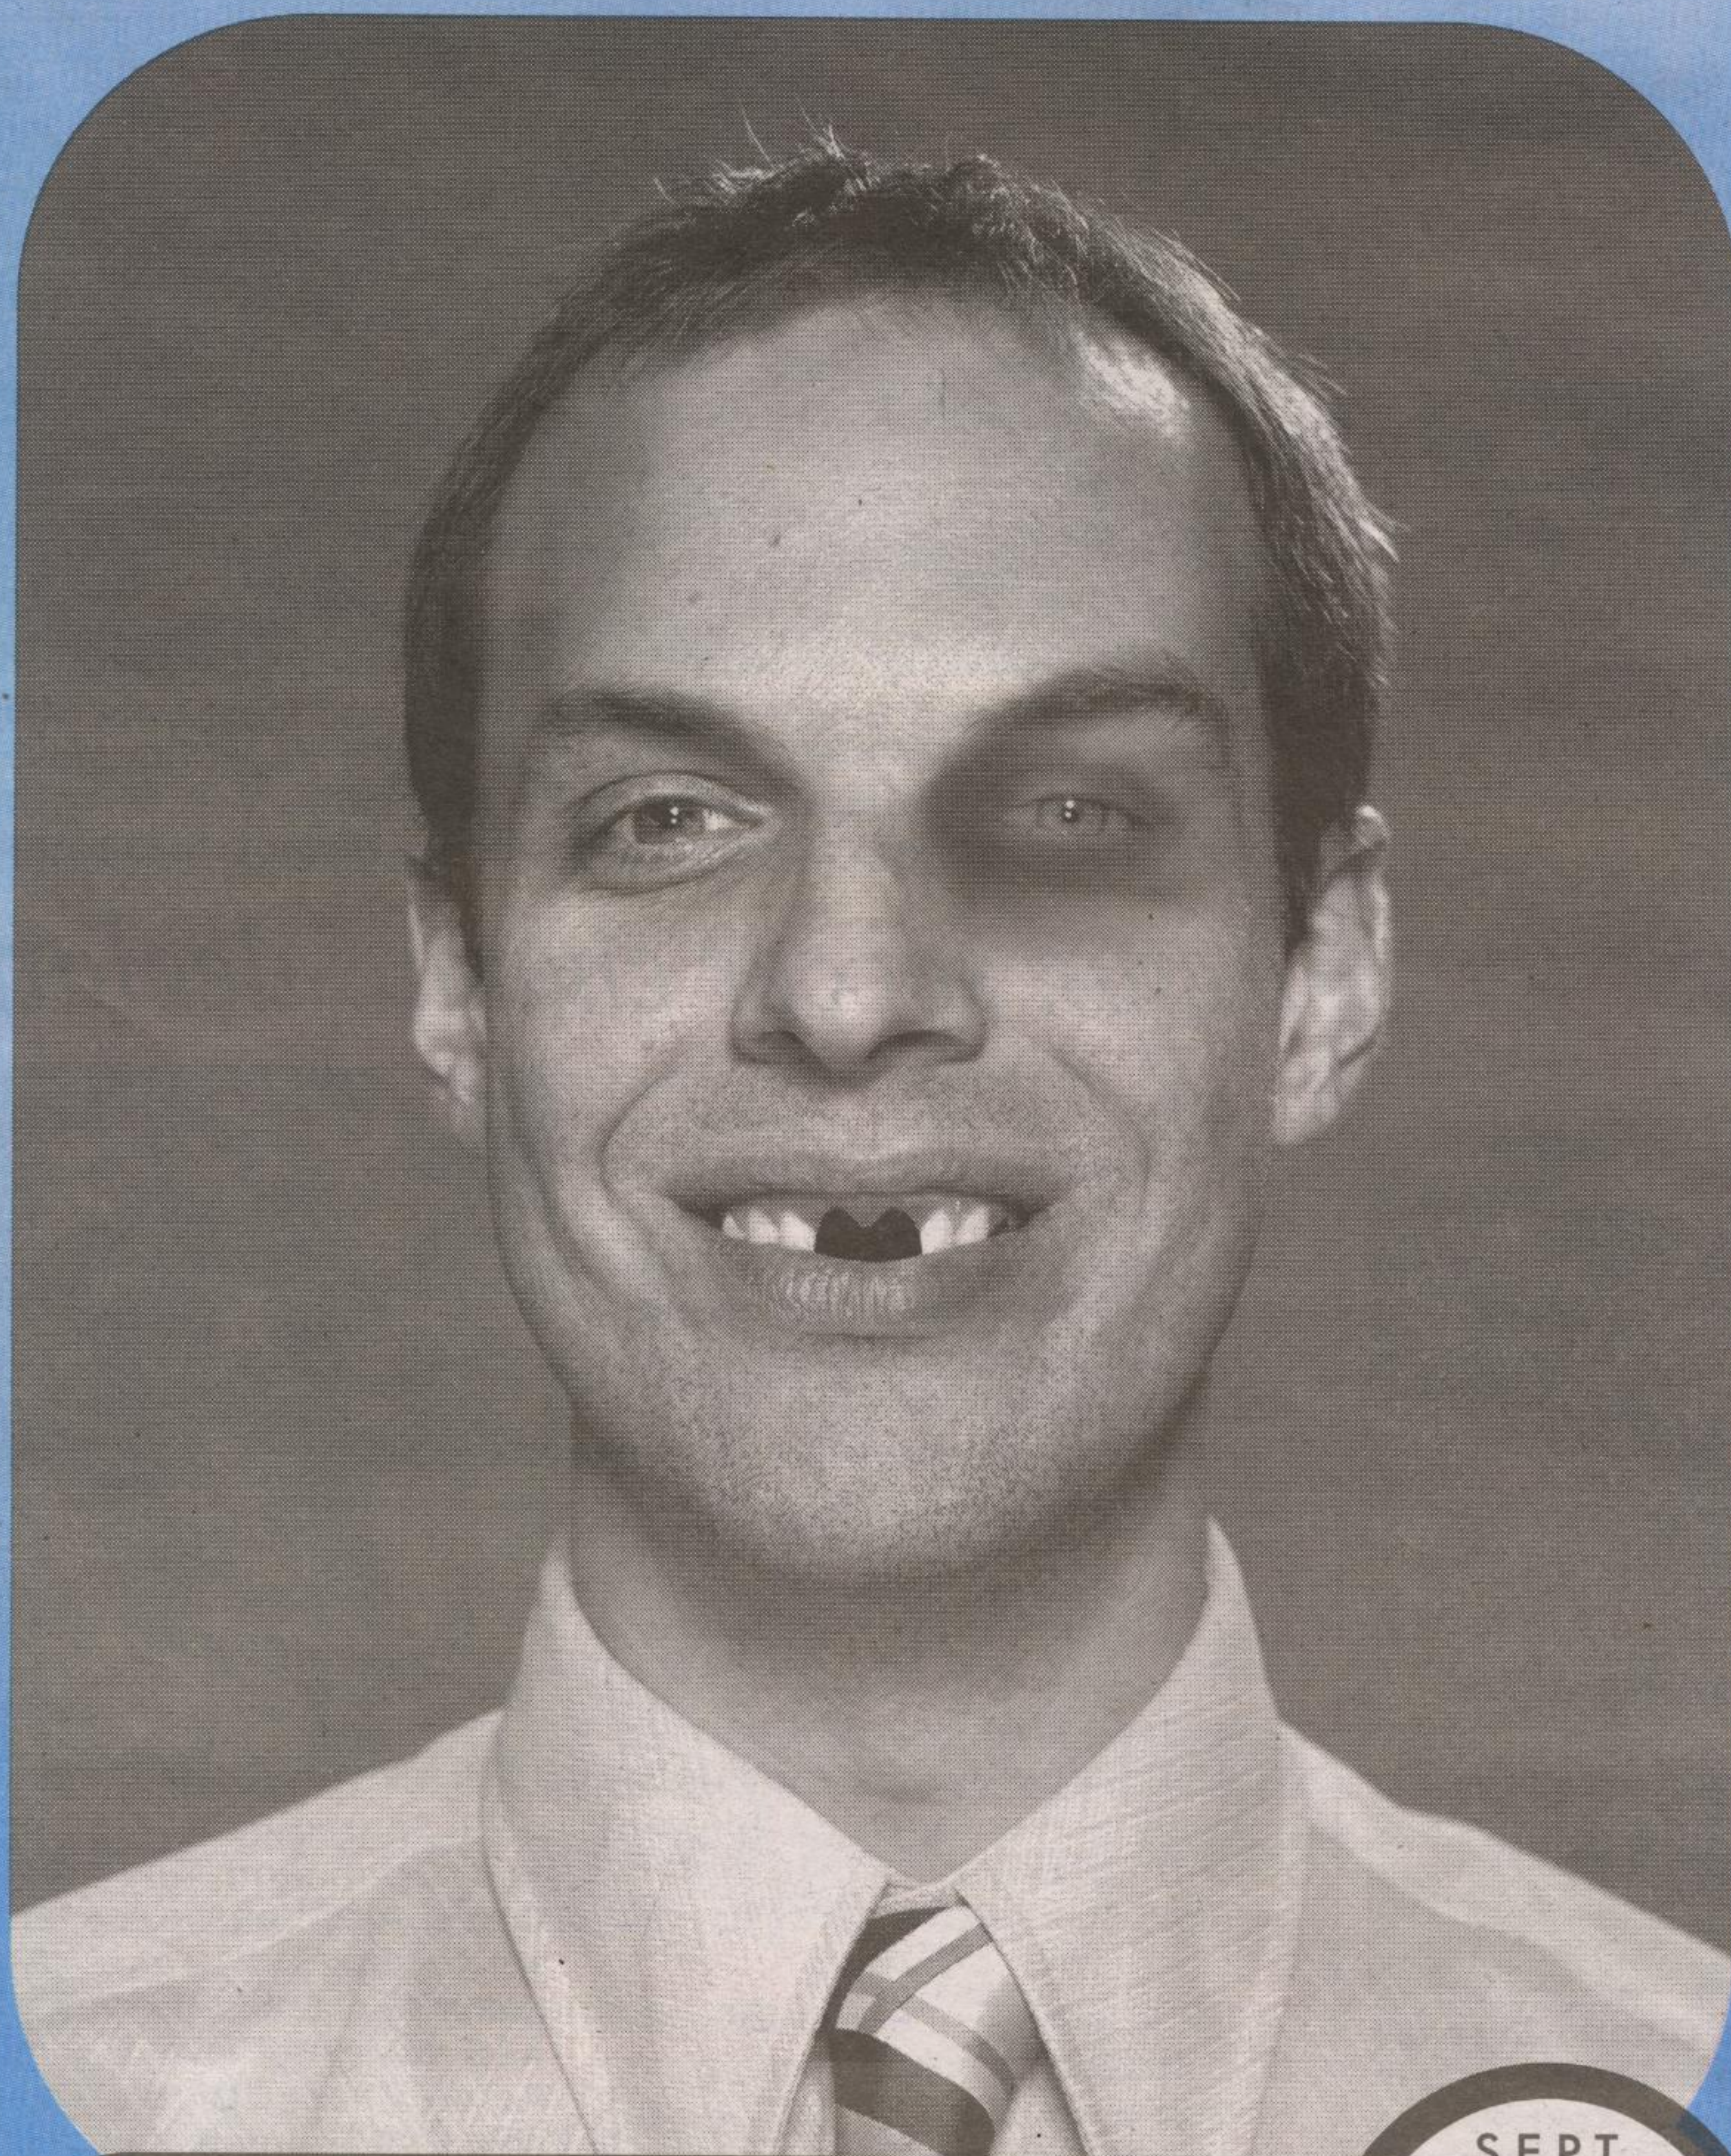

The Georgetown Rebels will be hosting a fall basketball camp for students in Grades 5-8. Registration for the camp will be held Wednesday, Sept. 22 at Georgetown District High School from 7-8:30 p.m. The camp will be held on the next five Wednesdays from Sept. 29-Oct. 27 and will emphasize skill development and help players prepare for the winter basketball season. The cost is $50 (make cheques payable to Georgetown District High School). The camp's coaching staff will include Steve Pettit, who has coached high school and community basketball for 31 years, including four appearances in OFSAA tournaments; John Edwards, who has coached for 22 years and currently coaches the Rebels' senior boys team with Pettit; and Manny Saitis, who has coached for 10 years and currently coaches the Rebels' junior girls and senior boys basketball teams. Georgetown Rebels players will also assist.

3-on-3 champs
