

Guide to the Outdoors

Julie Pomeroy

The fall hiking season is in full swing and the weather has been beautiful! Several weeks ago, Kevin Moore wrote about wearing Smart Wool hiking socks to keep your feet comfortable and reduce the chance of blisters when you hike by wicking and absorbing the moisture from your feet. This week Canoe Country is offering a SPECIAL on SMART WOOL SOCKS. Buy 2 pair and get 1 pair FREE. We have a good stock of Bruce Trail Guides in store. Our new Day Tripping checklists have arrived. They look great. Thank you Pauline! I find the lists very helpful to review prior to going out for a day or a weekend to make sure I don't forget anything. Hope you will too! Happy Hiking.

Entertainment

Jazz Juno nominee to swing at Hearthside on Sept. 25

Come reminisce this fall on Saturday, Sept. 25 when Kory Livingstone will be the featured entertainer at the Hearthside Dinner & Music Series at the Halton Region Museum.

As Juno Nominee in 2000 for "Best Jazz Performer", Livingstone is an accomplished artist, thrilling audiences with his music for over a generation.

Livingstone, just like Nat King Cole and Ray Charles before him, succeeds in this most demanding area of jazz...his rich voice and lyrical piano playing are perfectly suited to the sophisticated repertoire that he performs.

Accompanying on sax will be Kevin Goss.

Come experience the progression of music from jazz pianists to big-band vocalists in the intimate atmosphere of the historic Hearth Room at the Halton Region Museum.

Now in its sixth year, the Hearthside Dinner & Music Series is one of a number of initiatives that the Halton Museum Foundation has established to assist with the building of a new Artifact Centre at the Halton Region Museum located in Kelso Conservation Area, Milton.

Kentner's Social Catering of Georgetown is a longtime sponsor of this event and this evening's special sponsor is The Georgetown Piano Warehouse. This fund-raising evening includes dinner at 7 p.m. followed by the evening's entertainment until 11 p.m. Tickets are only $40 per person and are advanced ticket sales only. A cash bar will be available. Call 905-875-2200 ext. 21 to reserve your spot.

More information on this and other special events can be found on the Museum's Web site: www.region.halton.on.ca/museum/newsevents.

Future Hearthsides will feature "Canada's Sweetheart of Swing" Alex Pangman on November 27 and a romantic evening featuring George Grossman on February 12.

Writers group offers creative writing workshop

West Side Writers' Coalition will hold a creative writing workshop, 17 Secrets of Writing Great Fiction at the Glen Williams Town Hall on Sunday, Sept. 26, 1-5 p.m.

The cost is $32 in advance or $36 at the door. To register, phone Diana Revelins, 905-891-2354 or e-mail: b.henry@3web.net

In this workshop, you'll learn how to create great dialogue and develop terrific scenes. Better yet, you'll learn some of the best tricks of the trade so that you'll never write a lifeless scene again. Beginner and advanced writers welcome.

Workshop leader Brian Henry has been a book editor for 22 years. He teaches creative writing at Ryerson University and George Brown College and has led workshops from Boston to Buffalo and from Sarnia to Ottawa. He has helped many of his students to get published.
