

Top readers at the library

After a summer of hitting the books, top readers in the Summer Reading Club at Halton Hills Public Library received their prizes from TD Canada Trust Guelph Street Branch representatives who sponsored the contest. Winners were Nicholas Brandt, 5 and Joelle Lancaster, 10, who received prizes of $50 each from outgoing branch manager Monique Bartolomeo, and incoming branch manager Nelson Henriques.

Go to jail—for the Cancer Society

Halton Regional Police will be rounding up Halton Hills' most wanted to raise money for the Canadian Cancer Society.

Halton officers will volunteer their time Saturday, Sept. 25 to arrest willing citizens for the Jail-N-Bail. Those arrested will be taken to a judge and sentenced. They will then be put in jail until enough pledges are collected to spring them from their cell. The prison cell will be set up in the Georgetown

Market Place and prisoners will begin being sentenced at 10 a.m.

If you're interested in nominating a willing prisoner, call the Jail-N-Bail hotline at 905-825-4747 ext. 2118.

Following the Jail-N-Bail, members of the Halton Regional Police and local officers from the Ministry of Transportation will be getting their heads shaved in honour of cancer patients and raise money for the Canadian Cancer Society.
