Beach volleyball duo fourth at world tourney

They may not be on top of the world, but they were close.

Georgetown's Reid Hall teamed up with Adam Podstawka of Ancaster to post Canada's best-ever finish at the Under-18 Beach Volleyball Championships. The duo finished fourth in their first international competition, just missing out on reaching the podium when they were beaten 21-15, 21-14 by Latvia's Janis Smedins and Ingars Ivanovs.

"We trained really hard and our goal was to win worlds," Hall said. "I didn't think the competition would be as tough as it was so we're pretty happy with how we did."

Hall and Podstawka, seeded 10th in the tournament, upset several top-seeded teams to reach the bronze medal game, including this year's European silver medallists,
