arena two hours before game time. And although it may not be as big, Sweazy remembers Georgetown's followers.

"Two years ago when I played with Bramalea it was packed here. They get good support during the regular season and you don't see that anywhere else."

Sweazy wasn't the only Raider making his debut on the weekend. Goalie Jesse Zimmerman got his first start and made the most of it, stopping 12 shots to earn the shutout against Bramalea.

Kevin Harvey had a goal and two assists while Kyle Friday, Wade Finegan, Tyler Leggo and Glen Hartwell also scored.

Friday night, Jay Sprague, Rob Sgarbossa and Harvey staked the Raiders to a 3-1 lead by the six-minute mark of the second period. Milton fought back to tie the game by the end of the period, though. And despite the Raiders outshooting Milton 13-7 through the third and overtime periods, it was Milton that got the winner with 1:02 to play in the extra period.

Raider goalie John Barrow stopped Shandor Alphonso on a breakaway in OT but got caught out of his net leaving Jason Dopaco an open net for the winner.

Raider rap: Tyson Gimblett had two assists against Milton.... Georgetown plays in Burlington Friday (7:30 p.m.) and then in a rematch of last year's West Conference final, they host the Oakville Blades Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Alcott Arena.
