

Literacy strikes a chord

Literacy North Halton's (LNH) first-ever Garden Harmony concert proved to be a great literacy awareness event for the local community-based adult literacy organization at the Dominion Seed House Garden on Saturday. The audience was thrilled with the performance by young Casey Manierka-Quaile (above) who despite suffering with a severe cold all week succeeded in wowing everyone with his professionalism. LNH appreciates its sponsors Remington Homes and Unilock, as well as those in the community who contributed to this event. The goal of the event was to raise awareness of adult literacy and the service provided by Literacy North Halton. LNH is always looking for volunteers; for more information call 905-873-2200 or e-mail literacy@bellnet.ca.
